HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS

Stoke Assumes Lead In Premier Division

A number of surprises featured the Home football matches played on Saturday last. The chief of these were Arsenal's away defeat at Sunderland, and the Villa's win over Manchester City. As a result of this and its own win against Chelsea, Stoke has assumed the lead in the premier division.

In the Second Division, Bolton is still at the head of affairs in spite of its reverse at home, and Manchester U. has moved up to second place.

Charlton and Tranmere are still in the lead in the Southern and Northern sections of the Third Division respectively.

St. Johnstone had another easy win—5-2 against Clyde—and is still heading the Scottish League with the Rangers (who beat Queen of the South 3-2), in close attendance.

The results as cabled by Reuters, together with the League Tables, brought up to date, are given as follows:—

DEBATES IN COMMONS

Heavy Programme Ahead

London, Oct. 28.
A heavy programme of work lies before the Government when the House of Commons reassembles on Tuesday.
Several important domestic measures are down for consideration during the closing weeks of the present session, which, it is hoped will end in time for the new session to be opened by the King on November 22.
Important debates on India and certain international matters are expected, while an exceptionally large number of questions to Ministers, including 65 that were handed in before the Summer recess, await answers.
In regard to legislative measures the Betting Bill which has encountered considerable opposition owing to the restrictions it imposes in regard to betting on dog-racing, and the strengthening of the law against lotteries will take a prominent place. The Bill is at present before the Standing Committee, and if its consideration were not completed, the Bill would die with the end of the session. In order to insure its passage, the Commons will be asked to remove it to a Committee of the whole House.
The Electricity Supply Bill enabling the Central Electricity Board to supply current direct to railways, has passed the House of Lords, but its remaining stages in the Commons have still to be completed.
The Incident to Disaffection Bill also has still to pass through its final stages in the Commons.—British Wireless.
A VAST BILL
London, Oct. 27.
Many weeks of the new Parliamentary session will be occupied in the House of Commons by discussion of Government proposals for Indian Constitutional Reform which was described last night by the Chancellor of Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain in a speech at York as constituting one of the most difficult and most complex and anxious problems ever set to any nation in the whole history of the world. Mr. Chamberlain said these proposals would be comprised in a vast bill containing perhaps between 350 and 400 clauses.
The question had been the subject of most exhaustive and repeated inquiries and examination and he deeply regretted that it had been the occasion of serious differences of opinion in the Conservative Party. Without danger of aggravating such differences he could say that affairs in India could not be left as they were. There was no dispute about that. The only question to decide was how fast 1 how far they were prepared to go in the direction of helping India towards self-government.—Transocean Kuo Min.

Huge bombing planes with turrets such as ships have, will soon be the latest acquisition of the British Air Force. TO-MORROW "I GIVE MY LOVE"

WITH PAUL LUKAS WYNNE GIBSON

I GIVE MY LOVE

At The Central

One of the most vital of modern writers is Vicki Baum, author of the famous "Grand Hotel," who has won the widest acclaim accorded a European writer in the year. Her latest screen play is Universal's "I Give My Love," a powerful life drama with Wynne Gibson and Paul Lukas, will be shown at the Central Theatre tomorrow.

For the past two years Miss Baum has been turning her talents to the screen as well as continuing to write novels and plays. Dark eyed, blonde and smiling, Vicki Baum upsets the traditional standards of feminine writer with imagination and creative ability.

She is very adept with the typewriter, which she uses herself. In the space of one year she completed two novels: "Martin's Summer" and "Life Goes On," which was later dramatized as "The Divine Drudge." Her most recent story is about Hollywood, "Fallen Star."

Even since she can recall, her life has been crowded. Even back in Germany, her native land, she was continually being kept busy. Not content with being the editor of three widely-circulated women's magazines, she also wrote novels in her "spare time," to say nothing of caring for her two young sons. Wolfgang, now aged 17 and Peter now 13.

HERE COMES THE GROOM

At The Alhambra

Jack Haley, Mary Boland, Nell Hamilton, Patricia Ellis and Isabel Jewell head the cast of Charles R. Rogers' Paramount film comedy, "Here Comes the Groom," due for showing at the Queen's Theatre between Thursday and Saturday.

Directed by Edward Sedgwick from an original play by Richard Flournoy, the film is a spontaneous story of the hectic and highly amusing romance between two young burglars.

When Jack Haley is scored by his sweetheart, Isabel Jewell, for

"THIRTY-DAY PRINCESS"

With Sylvia Sidney

For the first time in her screen career, Sylvia Sidney, Paramount film star, is given the opportunity to wear smart, up-to-date clothes in a modern picture.

The picture is "Thirty-Day Princess," B. P. Schulberg's production of Clarence Budington Kelland's popular magazine story, and it is coming on Wednesday to the King's Theatre.

One of the gowns she will wear in the picture is an evening frock of black chiffon with a true Princess line.

The silhouette is slightly wind-blown in keeping with the high style trend. The skirt is simple and very long, with a full, single ruffle around the hem ending in a graceful train in back. The neckline is high in front with double ruffles of black and white chiffon, the white nearest the face.

Over the shoulders several deep ruffles of black chiffon give a graceful line, ending in a V shaped decolletage in the back, a soft sash ties emphasizing the Princess lines of the frock.

Miss Sidney has personally created a collar to go with this gown. She piles her dark hair high, with just a semblance of wave on each side, and a cluster of ringlets secured by a rhinestone bow knot is perched flatteringly to top.

"Thirty-day Princess" presents Miss Sidney in her first dual role. She plays Nancy Lane, a stage actress, who because of her perfect

"SHOOT THE WORKS"

Musical Comedy At The Queen's

"Shoot the Works" now showing at the Queen's Theatre is an entertaining musical comedy with a grand cast including Jack Oakie, Dorothy Dell, Arline Judge, Roscoe Karns, Ben Bernie, Allison Skipworth and William Frawley.

Combined the music, songs and romance, the picture tells of singers and actors on the rise and centres on the romance of a side-show promoter (Jack Oakie), who loves a blues singer (Dorothy Dell), loses her to another and then wins her back again.

Much of the comedy relief is furnished by Roscoe Karns, as the dizzy flagpole-sitting champion and Arline Judge, his sweetheart. There are also several song-hits introduced by Ben Bernie (a newcomer to the screen) with Miss Dell rendering the vocal selections.

Lovers of music should see this picture.

While playing this role she falls in love with Cary Grant, newspaper publisher, who has threatened to expose the real princess as a ballyhoo for a bankers loan for her country.

The complications that develop when the news of the expose almost gets to the papers furnish

BABY TAKE A BOW

At The King's

Shirley Temple, the cute little film star has captured the heart of many a film fan in her previous appearances on the local screen and it may safely be said that she made further conquests when she appeared in "Baby Take A Bow," which opened at the King's Theatre on Saturday. It is hard to believe that so little a girl can command such a large following, yet it can be said without any fear of contradiction that capacity houses went to "Baby Take A Bow" during the last two days.

In the same picture are such seasoned stars as James Dunn and Claire Trevor, not forgetting Alan Dinehart, but it was "Shirley" who held all attention during the entire filming of the picture. The management of the King's Theatre are to be congratulated upon securing this picture for it is one which appeals to both old and young, and when it is considered that such pictures are rather few and far between, cinema fans ought to be all the more thankful for Shirley Temple's latest effort.

If proof is necessary for the popularity of this little star, one only need check up the different competitions run in conjunction with the film. Indeed one of the leading restaurants has even seen fit to provide a Shirley Temple Menu!

AN ESSAY

In Stage Biography

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Oct. 6.
For the opening play of the autumn season, the Gate Theatre Studio management chose, "Miracle in America," by Ernest Toller and Hermann Kesten.

A translation from the German, this biography of Mr. Mary Baker Eddy purported to be a more or less prejudiced picture of a strange personality. Owing to the provocative nature of the theme, the Lord Chamberlain could not grant it a licence for general showing, but this week's semi-private presentation did well by an arresting piece of work.

Only those who expected such a play to be quite unbiased—a human impossibility—were disappointed. The heroine's weaknesses made good dramatic material, while her virtues were exceedingly dull to watch, so what authors could resist the temptations that lingered on the brink of every scene?

Amorous and hysterical! At first she was shown as a helpless invalid, who came to a healer, Quimby, for help. Having benefited by his assistance, she proceeded to build up a religious organisation on his principles, writing a book, collecting fees, and combining Christianity with a most business-like science. Although her dauntless determination, her innate ability, and her obvious sincerity were not forgotten, "Miracle in America" was still inclined to show Mrs. Eddy as hysterical, amorous, and money-grubbing. The grand finale depicted her as a crane upheld by drugs which eventually killed her.

Dorothy Holmes Cora, who took over the part of Mrs. Eddy, infused it with a mixture of ruthlessness and ecstasy which made it tower above several other figures which peopled the nineteenth-century stage, but the personality had little depth, possibly because the need for some ten scenes broke up all continuity.

Noel Hood, Charlotte Leigh, Hedley Briggs, and Walter Fitzgerald played rivals and devotees with all the required zeal. An interesting experiment.

THE FLYING DUTCHMAN

Most "Dangerous" Competitor

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Oct. 13.
Although he is not even mentioned in the latest list of betting on the England-Australia air race, the foreign competitor who is most feared by our airmen is G. F. Geyssendorfer.

He is flying a Pander airplane for a Dutch syndicate. This machine made a remarkable flight from Amsterdam to Batavia a few months ago.

Geyssendorfer is one of the crack pilots of the Royal Dutch Air Lines. He has flown along the route to Batavia almost monthly for the last 18 months. He has experience of night landings on most of the aerodromes. He has a high international reputation.

His familiarity with nearly the whole of the course for the race and his high speed machine must give him a great chance.

CONVENTION CITY

At The Alhambra

What is probably one of the best laugh riots ever to come to the talkie screen in Hong Kong is now being presented at the Alhambra Theatre, where "Convention City" with an all-star cast is drawing large houses.

The picture opens at a fast and furious pace which never slackens and has a curious effect on people subject to much laughter—it just about kills you.

The first glimpse of the principal characters reveals them en route to Atlantic City—the American nation's principal locale for salemen's jamborees.

The story is a riot from start to finish and the word CONVENTION rings truly right through, forming the main theme round which the individual characters are woven.

The cast is one of the finest ever assembled for a comedy hit and includes such stars as Joan Blondell, Dick Powell, Adolphe Men-

After being arrested, the accused told the Police that the parcel of singles were stolen from the Ching Wah Knitting Company at No. 137, Kwei Lin Street, Shum-shui-po.

The accused pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labour.

BANISHEE RETURNS

A Chinese named Kwong Choi, aged 35 years, a returned banishee, pleaded guilty before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday morning, on a charge of returning to the Colony, before his term of banishment had expired.

It was stated by the Police that the accused was banished from the Colony only last month for a period of ten years, but on Friday afternoon, he was seen and recognized by a Chinese Constable, who arrested him in Wong Chook Street, near Lai Chi Kok Road.

When questioned by his Worship, the accused told the Court that he returned to the Colony to see his friend about some work.

UNUSUAL INTEREST

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Dublin, Oct. 27.
Unusually keen interest was attached to the drawing of the Irish Sweepstake held on Saturday being firstly, this is the last lottery to take place before the new anti-sweepstake law comes into force in Great Britain and secondly because of the refusal of Fitzmaurice to start in the England to Melbourne race as representative of the Sweepstake organizers. For these reasons the number of sweepstake tickets sold was exceptionally large. This is the thirteenth sweep which is connected with the Cambridge Stakes.—Francisco Kuo Min.

THE CAMBRIDGESHIRE

In the Cambridgeshire Stakes to be run on Wednesday, Gordon Richards will ride The Blue Boy and Gettish will ride Chestnut City.

Both horses have been trained by Martin Harrigan for different owners the latter being owned by Sir Wyndham Portal, the former R.F. Watson. They took up for Richards, the owner of The Blue Boy winning.—Reuter.

LAWRENCE WINS AGAIN

Success In Harbour
Swim

After having won the colony's titles from the 100 yards to the 880 yards championship, W. Lawrence, the Interport Swimmer annexed his 5th title of the year by winning the Harbour Race from Lionel Roza Pereira, last year's holder, in one of the most closely fought races in recent time. Pereira led most of the way and in the last couple of hundred yards Lawrence, by a terrific burst of speed managed to overtake Pereira and won the event from him by two yards in the time of 27 mins. 54 secs.

The race was closely watched by many people. From the commencement it looked as though Pereira was to repeat his last year's performance, but that was not to be. Swimming strongly for three quarters of the raceway Pereira was closely followed by Lawrence and Campbell, and by a well judged race Lawrence managed to turn the tables on Pereira and touched the Praya wall two yards ahead of Pereira amidst the applause of the spectators.

Although the time is not anywhere near the record which stands to the credit of C. Finch who made the crossing in 22 mins. 17 secs. in 1909 Lawrence's time may be considered as being extraordinary good in view of the strong prevailing currents. C. J. Cooke did very well for a man of 60 years, as he was up amongst the leaders until the last quarters of the race. Although finishing 6th he beat the Chinese champion, Shik Kam Pui. Cooke won the race in 1907 and 1923 after which he won it for three years in succession. He and Roza Pereira hold the distinction of having won the race four times.

Repeating her last year's performance Miss Doris Hunt won the Ladies Race against some fast Chinese swimmers including Miss Yeung Sau King, the Chinese Olympic Star. She won the race in the time of 39 mins. 84/5 secs., a little over 10 mins. against her last year's time.

At the conclusion of the race the prizes for the Colony championships were presented by Mrs. R. J. Hunt.

The results of the first 20, out of a field of 32, to finish were as follows:

1. W. Lawrence	27	54

THE HELENA MAY

Mrs. E. Cock The New President

The 17th Annual General Meeting of Subscribing Members of the Helena May Institute was held in the Institute on Saturday, October 20th, when the following ladies were present:—

Mrs. E. D. G. Wolfe, M. B. E. in the Chair, Mrs. E. Cock (Vice President), Mrs. J. B. Ross (Hon. Treasurer), Mrs. E. L. Grist (Hon. Secretary), Mrs. R. E. Lindell, Mrs. E. Davidson, Mrs. G. D. R. Black, Mrs. J. D. Lloyd, Mrs. A. M. Bowes-Smith, Mrs. R. M. Henderson, Mrs. B. C. K. Hawkins, Mrs. G. H. Gandy, Mrs. J. D. Danby, Mrs. D. Kelvin Stark, Mrs. J. H. R. Hance, Mrs. W. J. E. Mackenzie, Mrs. L. Forster, Mrs. C. A. Middleton-Smith, Mrs. D. Gubbay, Miss Hayward, and Miss Bonnell (Secretary and Treasurer of the Institute).

Mrs. Wolfe reviewed the past year's work, saying that the Council had hoped to be able to build an additional wing, as extra space was badly needed, but it was felt that this scheme would have to be postponed until conditions improved. The Kowloon Branch had definitely closed down, but the Institute still had the option on a site on the mainland. A good many repairs had been needed in the house itself, the main item being re-wiring throughout. The Social Committee had enjoyed a very successful season, a popular item having been the Christmas Pantomime; another Pantomime would be held this year, with the booking at Messrs. Anderson's, and the President hoped that those wishing to attend would buy their tickets early, as there were many disappointments previously; owing to all three performances being full, 315 new books had been placed in the library. The Christian Fellowship meetings were held every Friday morning from 10.30-11.30, and this year had shown a marked increase in the attendance, due to the great encouragement that had been given by the local clergy, and the Council were especially grateful to the Bishop of Victoria, who had taken two sessions; these meetings are open to all members of the general public. The Annual Missionary Tea had also been a great success, over 100 guests being present.

Good-bye To Mrs. Wolfe

Mrs. Cock then spoke of the great regret with which all members of the Institute said good-bye to Mrs. Wolfe, who had served on various Committees, then as Chairman of the House, and during the last year as President of Council. Her energy, initiative, and always ready practical advice were invaluable, and all who loved the Helena May owed her the greatest debt of gratitude.

Mrs. Danby seconded the vote of thanks, which was warmly acclaimed by all present.

Mrs. Ross gave a short review of the accounts; the adoption of the Report and Balance Sheet was then proposed by Mrs. Davidson, seconded by Mrs. Henderson, and carried unanimously.

Mrs. Cooke will succeed Mrs. Wolfe as President, and Mrs. R. M. Henderson becomes Vice-President.

The meeting concluded with an auction of magazines for 1935.

Racing Boy In Fine Fettle: Hydroplane Back At Work

(BY "MORNING DEW")

Hydroplane, the Derby winner was back at the course on Saturday and was sent over six furlongs, which he covered in businesslike fashion. With the advent of the St. Leger, the return to form of Hydroplane makes the issue interesting and this pony's progress during the next fortnight will no doubt be closely followed by those studying the St. Leger prospects.

Soldier of China moved exceptionally well on Saturday and should be due for a win very soon.

ARMS EMBARGO IN CHACO WAR

International Agreement Considered
London, Oct. 27.
The desirability of an international agreement to control the exportation of arms now under consideration by the British Government, will result in an enormous delay in applying the recent embargo on the sale of arms to Bolivia and Paraguay.

The Governments of other countries which manufacture arms are likely to be approached. At present, Britain alone exercises official control over the sale of arms to foreign countries.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT SECURITIES

London, Oct. 27.
The under-consumption of credit and capital, which is one of the outcomes of the world's economic disorders, has been reflected during the week in continued strength of the gilt-edged market. Yesterday new high levels were recorded by several British Government securities following substantial buying by big financial institutions. Allowing for deduction of 1 year's interest, the price of War Loan 3½ per cent. was 7/16 higher at 104 11/16, and 3½ per cent. conversion stock changed hands at 105½. Yesterday's sharp fall of 4/83d. in rates for Treasury Bills to 9/742d. per cent. represents one of the biggest changes in the rate that has occurred in a single week for several years and it gave a fresh upward drive to gilt-edged. Stock Markets are closed to-day.

The Tattoo

[TO THE EDITOR, THE HONG KONG DAILY PRESS.]

Sir,—I wish to express my strong disagreement with the choice of a time for the forthcoming Tattoo. It is difficult to imagine any time less suitable for such a display of military methods and for the rousing of the civilian population to admiration of things martial than the month in which it has been agreed to commemorate the deaths and sufferings of so many who in the last war offered their lives to end war. Those were the words used to induce a peace-loving people to undergo and in-liner sufferings such as the human race has never collectively known before, and which it cannot face again and survive with the civilisation which makes life worth living. It is not too much to say that the choice of this time, which to as many as remember the last war is not the occasion of a holiday like the rest, will seem to many like a pointed mockery of the ideals of faith more cynical than any of those who joined up in 1914 could have imagined. Even the most confirmed militarist would be sorry to think that the soldiers of the present or the civilian population on whom they must draw as before would interpret this as an earnest of how future promises to volunteers will be honoured.

It is possible that we have misconstrued the choice of the date for these events, and that the dates were selected with a view rather to preparing the public mind for due observance of the solemnity of Armistice Day rather than for its desecration. The leader which advises our attendance at the Tattoo informs us that one of its objects is to show the civilian population modern military machinery in operation, and it may be that the intention is to warn us against its use rather than to inspire fervour. If that is true, it is regrettable that it was not made plainer; but we are afraid that this interpretation is over-zealous. Had such been the intention, it is probably not beyond the scope of a Tattoo to show a lifelike picture of a military hospital the day after a bombardment, or the picture of the petition of the defeated party at the end of an abortive attack with parade of mutilated men and their families, and an unemployment queue to make the finale. We do not expect to see such spectacles, and their absence induces us to look for the reason in another place.

There is one more aspect which must be kept in mind. We are told that the Tattoo is designed to raise money for military and local charities. We trust that the public will remember that it is shortly to be followed by Poppy Day when, in addition to the solemn remembrance of those who fell for an ideal which their successors show every sign of betraying basely, we shall subscribe to acquit our debts then contracted towards the broken survivors. We have not yet paid for the last war; when we have done so, and when we have compared what we gained with the cost and found it worth while, then it will be time enough to consider another slaughter. Yours etc.—

SCOUTS RALLY

Prince Of Wales
Banner Test

One of the largest Scout rallies ever held in the Colony took place at Kowloon on Saturday, when over 260 Scouts from 10 Troops from Hong Kong and Kowloon gathered in the grounds of the St. Andrew's Church to compete for the Prince of Wales Banner.

Scout Master R. Durrner, Acting Commissioner, was in charge, while Mr. S. Mitchell was the Chief Examiner. The Rev. N. V. Halward, the Chief Commissioner (South) was unable to attend, being indisposed.

The following competitions were held:—Whipping the end of a rope; Making a fire and boiling a pint of water; Morse Signalling; Kims game and a Troop competition.

The troops competitions saw teams of 12 scouts building a lean-to shelter, flag-staff and tripod entirely out of staves. At the end each team was compelled to fly a flag from its flag-staff.

The final Rally, which will be held on December 1 at Sai Wan, will decide the winner of the banner.

LOCAL WEDDING

Stoker-Moss

A pretty wedding took place at St. John's Cathedral on Saturday afternoon when Miss Nellie (Betty) Moss, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moss, was married to Mr. William Stoker, of the Hong Kong Electric Company and the younger son of the late Mr. A. E. and Mrs. Stoker, of Harrogate, and York, England. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. W. Baines with Mr. F. Mason at the organ.

The bride who was given away by her father was charmingly attired in graceful ivory satin and lace gown by "Eunice." The unusually long train, which was carried by Victoria Moss (her sister) who acted as flower-girl, was dotted with tiny orange blossom sprays. A beautiful Bretonne net veil was caught to the head by a halo of orange blossoms and crystals.

Following the flower-girl were three demure bridesmaids, the Misses D. Moss, D. Brooks and R. Blackmore, gowned in pastel shades of daffodil, pale blue, and green georgette daintily made with frills and finished with silver and georgette sashes—dainty muffs, were carried instead of bouquets—and haloes of silver and georgette.

Mrs. Moss, as matron of honour, wore a deep pansy gown of georgette with hat to match and a corsage of maiden hair fern and pansies.

Mr. A. L. Fisher, of the Hong Kong Telephone Company, performed the duties of best man, while Messrs. G. C. Moss, Jr., A. R. Moss and L. D. Skinner were the groomsmen.

After the ceremony the couple passed through a guard of honour of 18 of the 5th Kowloon "Girl Guide Troop," of which the bride is the captain.

The happy couple's car was escorted to the Hong Kong Electric Recreation Club, North Point, by four combination and two solo machines of the Motor Cycle Section of the Hong Kong Volunteer, led by Sergeant Rodgers, of which the bridegroom is a very popular member.

At the reception, which was attended by over 250 guests, the bridegroom's health was proposed by Mr. F. F. Duckworth, of the Hong Kong Electric Company.

Later in the evening, the newly-married couple left for a week's honeymoon at Cheung Chau on the No. 2 Police Launch from Railway pier. The bride's going-away dress was a pretty sage blue ensemble of corded velvet with a smart beret to match.

Lee-Ma

Two well-known Chinese families were united in a marriage which was solemnized at the Kowloon Union Church on Saturday when Miss Lee Oi-ming, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tintang became the bride of Mr. Ma Yuen-chang, of the staff of the Sincere Company, and second son of Mr. and Mrs. Ma Tin-chang. The Rev. Chang Chok Ling, vicar of the Hop Yat Church, assisted by the Rev. E. G. Powell, officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her grandfather, Mr. Lee Ki-cheong, was attired in a simple white silk dress and carried a well-versed bouquet of flowers. Miss Lee Oi-yun, the bridesmaid, was dressed similarly to the bride.

The flower-girls were the little Misses Lee Oi-lan and Chenny Kam-hang, while Mr. Ma Yung-wai performed the duties of the best man. Master Lee Hon-ki acted as the page boy.

After the wedding a reception was held at the roof-garden of the Sincere Company, where over 500 guests were present.

The honeymoon will be spent in the country and later in Canton.

London, Oct. 28.
Owing to the exceptionally large number of telephone cables between London and Melbourne on Tuesday after the result of the great air race was known, the radio telephone circuit was kept open thirty minutes beyond the normal period and for 7 hours and 25 minutes, there was unbroken communication.

Calls for broadcasting purposes accounted for only about 10 minutes, the bulk of the conversation being private, originated by relatives of the aviators, and trade interests connected with the race.

NATURAL FRIENDS TO MEN

According to Dr. Walter Hough, curator of anthropology of the Smithsonian Institute, friendship reigned between animals and men in the earliest history so that it would appear that the apparent enmity between men and wild animals in the present day is not a normal state, but rather it is brought about by unkindness and desire to kill or dominate on the one side, and fear, resulting in actions for self-preservation, on the other. Dr. Hough states that there are still in existence certain places in the world where animals do not know fear because they are unmolested, and what is more important still, because men are not allowed to do anything to startle them into unfavourable reactions. An example of this happy state of affairs, on a small scale, of course, may be seen everyday in public parks where squirrels and pigeons, unmolested over a period of years, are not in the least timid. They will feed out of one's hand and sit on the shoulders of those who feed them, thus giving an instance of the ideal condition which might exist everywhere if men would only apply themselves intelligently to overcome the fear their wrong tactics have produced in the forests, streams and fields. In Isaiah 11: 6, it is stated that "The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb; and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the felling together; and a little child shall lead them... they shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain."

Is it not possible that in the days when this passage was written, there was more evidence of the friendship between animals and men which is now known in some of the remotest corners of the globe? Perhaps the prophet who spoke saw the beginnings of the strife between them for dominion and foresaw that man would go through an age of fear before they would learn, through wisdom and

GEN. CHIANG AT PEIPING

Dr. Wang Has A Conference

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Peiping, October 28.

General Chiang Kai Shek underwent a satisfactory medical examination yesterday at the Peiping Union Medical College Hospital.

Dr. Wang Chung Hui told the Press that the object of his trip to the north was to visit General Chiang Kai Shek to report satisfactory results from his trip to the south and "express gratification for postponement of Congress, enabling a fuller interchange of political views between the Central Government and the South-west regarding China's foreign policy."

He said that the League's resolution of non-recognition of the Puppet State had only moral significance owing to inability to render tangible assistance and stressed the importance of self-reliance, consolidation of national strength and elevation to a position internationally.

Dr. Wang conferred with General Chiang in the afternoon, and intends to stay here a few days. He will be returning to The Hague at the end of the year on the expiration of his vacation.—China United Press.

If Gossip We Must

(By NIGHTBIRD)

The Foundation Stone Laying Ceremony at the Bank's new home.

"The 'all-star' night at the Hotel on Saturday was a tremendous success; two things, I think contributed to it. First of all the Hotel had arranged an excellent programme and then the weather was so delightfully cool that one simply could not help dancing every dance. The band rose to the occasion in great style and when I say that they excelled themselves, you can just imagine the rest."

Every table was taken up and there were quite a few "big parties." Mr. and Mrs. Taggart were just by themselves and although I could not quite get a "close-up" of Mrs. Taggart, her dress from a distance looked adorable. It was a silvery-grey creation and suited her so well. Mr. Marshall of the Standard Oil Company came in rather late with Mrs. Marshall who had on a dress of powder blue colour while Mrs. Binnie who came with her husband wore a heavy cream satin dress.

It did not take long for the party to get merry and gay and soon everybody was on the floor dancing to some of the best music we have had for some time. Mrs. Blythe was in an apple green silk dress the top of which was trimmed with swansdown, a sort of cape effect and very pretty too. At the other end of the room I saw Mrs. A. V. Harvey who favoured black, and about the time that I noticed her, I heard Cowan and Bailey announcing that they were going to sing "about sixty or seventy songs" but they could not even go through half that number!

There were quite a number of "By Special Request" from the audience and Cowan and Bailey delighted them with "I Don't Want Love," "Wooden Headed Jones" and "All I Do is Dream of You." Not to be outdone the band gave some excellent items while Miss Betty Compton made a very efficient "Mistress of Ceremonies."

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

One of the most popular members of the younger set, Miss Eve O'Hagan, was in a charming gown of powder blue satin. In her party was Mr. T. A. Pearce, just back from the North after the inter-port golf and cricket matches. General Cohen again had a party among whom was a very pretty girl in black, Mrs. Gray, wife of the Medical Officer of Health, was as usual, very pretty. She had on a dress of the palest shade of pink organdie and another couple I noticed was Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fredericks, and Mr. Murphy of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels had for his partner a charming lady who, I think, is a newcomer to the Colony. She wore a pink net dress which suited her extremely well.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Walker of the Kowloon-Canton Railway came in with Mr. and Mrs. Youngusband and all of a sudden the "inseparable two" appeared on the scene. Mr. and Mrs.

Jones had a big party, the latter looking very nice in a plain black dress and in this party was Mrs. Ramsay who looked exceedingly chic in a yellow dress offset with black. This was indeed a merry party while Mr. G. W. Sewall was with a very charming lady in pale green lace, and the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Pearn, had a small party. Mrs. Pearn had a black velvet dress the yoke of which was all beaded.

About 1 a.m. when things were going very gaily, the popular manager of the Hotel, Mr. Plovani, gave the guests some excellent sausage and mash, and it tasted very good too, as the dancing had just had the effect of making us a trifle hungry. Another hour of mirth and laughter and then even before we realised it came the "end of a perfect day," or should I perhaps have said night?

IN THE GRILL ROOM

On Thursday night we had so much fun in the grill room of the Hotel that I wish the management would stage more functions of this nature. As was to be expected, the place was packed with people who went in to dinner while several others came in after the pictures, so it appeared, judging from the time they arrived. Amongst the people there were Mrs. Hill who was dressed in black velvet, Miss Dunneford in a white silk dress which had a low back, Mrs. Syme-Thompson in black lace, Mrs. Burnie in navy blue and Miss Harris-Walker who had on a dress of black net and lace.

The place was simply a fairyland of laughter and despite the fact that there was the office to think about the next morning, nobody appeared to care and as a result the party went with a swing from the beginning till the end. Mrs. Bacci chose a colour that suits her so well—brown—while Mrs. Muzzall was in a beautiful gown of blue and white. Mrs. Raymond and Miss Gubbay were amongst those who came in later and they had a party with them.

The weather is so good just now that one cannot help being in the best of spirits all the time. One newcomer asked if it was like this in Hong Kong all the year round. If it only were! Anyway, we have a few months of it and we should be quite content, but then the trouble is that there are so few people to share our good luck with us. If only more people could be induced to spend their holidays here then indeed Hong Kong may be called the winter playground of the Far East.

MACAO RACES

A very jolly race crowd made the trip to Macao yesterday and accommodation on the "Taishan" was greatly in demand. The Army was well represented, probably from the fact (as events subsequently showed) that one of their number, Capt. J. L. Jordan, had a couple of good things for the meeting.

Among those who were on board I noticed Col. and Mrs. Norworthy, Col. and Mrs. A. E. Williams, Col. Dowling, a strong supporter of the Macao Jockey Club, and his daughter Joan, as was Miss Anne Dodwell, Miss Jean Mackie, Miss Pamela Scott, Harrison and Miss L. Fearon. Lt. Johnny Hope, one of our best jockeys, and Mrs. Hope who have just returned from their holiday, were present and later in the afternoon "Johnny" rode one of Capt. Jordan's ponies into a place in the polo surry. Others who were on the Taishan were the Misses Betty and Beryl Fair, Miss Barbara Walker and Miss Paton. The popular starter of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, Mr. A. H. Potts, made the trip, accompanied by Mrs. Potts. I also saw Lt. Commander and Mrs. Skyrme on board.

At Macao I met Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gellion, who never misses a race meeting, while the Chairman of the Macao Jockey Club, Mr. G. H. Potts, together with Mr. Paul Hodgson were already on the course, having made the journey on the previous day. The return trip was very pleasant and the big crowd on board passed a very enjoyable three and a half hours at bridge, poker and other pastimes while some preferred to enjoy the scenic beauty of these waters.

H. M. THE KING OF SIAM DECIDES TO ABDICATE

Dispute With The National Assembly

NEW LAW ABROGATING ROYAL PREROGATIVE

Assent To Death Sentence Or Life Imprisonment

London, Oct. 27.

His Majesty the King of Siam has decided to abdicate. Reuter was informed by the Private Secretary to the King of Siam, who is staying at Cranleigh, Surrey, that the King has intimated his desire to abdicate to the Government at Bangkok.

No definite documents have yet been signed. The King's decision, it was understood, is due to a dispute in regard to Royal prerogative with the National Assembly.

It should be noted that the National Assembly in Bangkok is not fully representative of the people as half of the members were nominated by Premier Phayabhol, hence the King's claim that the proposed new law which abrogates the Royal prerogative of assenting to death sentence or life imprisonment should be submitted to a referendum.

The King, who was successfully operated on for cataract in the left eye in London last June, is due to undergo a second operation shortly for cataract in the right eye.

RUMOURS IN LONDON

The situation is obscure. All day long efforts to communicate with Bangkok from London have been abortive. Rumours have reached London that a revolution has broken out and Singapore explains that a heavy censorship has been imposed in Bangkok.

The Army is stated to be divided, part favouring the King and the other standing out in opposition.

It is believed that a determined effort will be made to persuade the King to withdraw his abdication.

COUNCIL OF REGENCY

Premier Phayabhol's Government possesses no outstanding leader except possibly the War Minister. Bipul, whose attitude may solve the crisis.

M. HERRIOT'S WARNING

Averts Threat To Government

Nantes, Oct. 28.

A threat to the Government due to the Radical Socialists' deposition of M. Doumergue's constitutional reform proposals has been averted by M. Herriot. Addressing the Radical Socialist Congress, he appealed for preservation of the party truce and concluded "I have only one word to add—January 13, 1935, the Saar plebiscite."

M. Herriot's warning was decisive and Congress decided almost unanimously to preserve the party truce whereon the Ministry was founded, but authorised the Radical Ministers to negotiate for a compromise with the Premier.

SITUATION IN EGYPT

Reports Of Tension Denied By Premier

London, Oct. 27.

The Egyptian Charge d'Affaires here has protested to the Foreign Office against the tone of the British Press as regards tension between the Residency and the Cairo Government.

It is understood that the reply stressed the freedom of the Press in Britain and reiterated that the Government had entire confidence in the acting High Commissioner, Mr. Maurice Peterson.

CHIEF OF CABINET

Alexandria, Oct. 27.

A Cairo message states that by Royal Decree, Ahmad Zewar Pasha has been appointed Chief of the Royal Cabinet.

Premier Yehia Pasha, told Reuter on his return from an audience with King Faud that he was delighted with the appointment of Ahmad Zewar Pasha, who is an ex-premier.

Yehia Pasha declared that the reports of tension between himself and Ibrahim Pasha were concocted by the Press. It is authoritative stated that there is no tension between the Residency and the Palace.

Until the relations between Zewar Pasha and Ibrahim Pasha are known it cannot be gauged whether the appointment will be a check to him or not.

"OIL MONOPOLY IS ONLY THE BEGINNING"

Comment On Manchukuo Policy

London, Oct. 27.

The "News Chronicle" in a leading article, says that cynicism could hardly go further than the Japanese reply concerning the Manchukuo oil monopoly. If Japan had desired politely to point out what a rod the Powers had prepared for their own backs by tamely allowing her aggressions, she could hardly have done it more neatly.

"The oil monopoly is only the beginning," the journal continues. "There is already talk of a tobacco monopoly, and other monopolies will doubtless follow to illustrate further the devotion of Japan and Manchukuo to the principle of the Open Door policy."

The "Daily Express" declares that it is certain that Japan will have her way in Manchukuo and will develop that business for the Japanese. The British Empire is our business. Let us mind it, the newspaper adds.

Reuter.

THE WRONG PARTY

Tokyo, Oct. 27.

The representations to Japan by Great Britain, the United States, and the Netherlands, in regard to the proposed oil monopoly in the so-called Manchukuo, were addressed to the wrong party, Generalissimo Hiroshi, the Japanese Minister, told pressmen after a Cabinet meeting here to-day.

The Minister said that the so-called Manchukuo had never prohibited foreign investment nor closed the Door to foreign businessmen.

The "Asahi," one of the leading dailies, states that no violation of the Nine Power Treaty or the Open Door policy is contemplated by the so-called Manchukuo, which, however, is free to take measures to control its industries, including the oil industry.

Reuter.

CHANGCHUN STATEMENT

Changchun, Oct. 27.

A spokesman of the so-called Manchukuo Foreign Office said that the so-called Manchukuo had not received any representation from Britain or America regarding the oil control problem of the so-called Manchukuo, but that it would be irrelevant if Article III of the Nine Power Treaty was to be invoked in the case of the so-called Manchukuo, which was born under new circumstances.

The spokesman emphasised that the Open Door principle had definitely been pledged and the so-called Manchukuo's sovereignty must be respected by the foreign powers regarding domestic affairs.

BATTLESHIPS FOR ITALY

Two More Keels Laid Down

Rome, Oct. 28.

Italy to-day laid down the keels of two more battleships, the Vittorio Veneto and the Littorio, thus exercising the right she possesses under the Washington Treaty.

Her last battleships were laid down in 1912. Whereas the new French cruiser Dunkerque now under construction is of medium size and power—26,500 tons and carrying 13 inch guns—the Italian ships will be up to the maximum by the Treaty, namely 35,000 tons and carrying 16 inch guns.

It is at present doubtful how long the Italian ships will be under construction but it is believed that they will be built more quickly than the French ship.

THE BALKAN TRAGEDY

What Happened In London

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Oct. 13.

A generation ago the feuds and furies of the Balkans in the romances of Anthony Hope made pleasant reading for the friends and nice costume plays. His device allowed the modern English heroes to plunge into medieval adventures and surprises without forgetting their dress suits. Sarajevo came and the horrors of the Balkan spread over the world, but not till the little boy King of Yugo-Slavia with his grandmother, on their way to the Bier of his assassinated father, passed through a curious and sympathetic crowd to-day had they seemed so close. Many of the onlookers at the doors of the Ritz Hotel to-day seemed to be of the generation who once stayed up at night reading about Rupert of Hentzau, and one wondered if they connected the dream and the reality.

That the horror might show its head in England was strongly in the mind of the authorities as the boy was brought up from his Surrey school with all possible police guard in a fast car given the freedom of the road, so that its pace was not halted till it reached the hotel, and when he left the hotel for Victoria to take train to Paris Piccadilly traffic was stopped. Son of a murdered father, successor but two removes to a monarch who with his queen was killed by his officers and hung from the palace windows, London gazed on the boy King on his way with great pity and sincere good wishes for his future.

CLUB AND SOUTH CHINA "B" SHARE POINTS

CLOSE GAME AT HAPPY VALLEY

Police Record A "Double"

Saturday's League Football produced some thrilling displays, the outstanding game being that between South China "B" and the Club which ended in a draw after 70 minutes of thrilling and exciting soccer.

The Club played up to a high standard and although several opportunities were wasted in the first half owing to a weak left wing, the forward line was very dangerous and gave the league leaders their most anxious time to date.

The Club defence was magnificent with Syd Strange and Gamble forming a formidable support to Jackie Pote Hunt and the Club halves.

Fowler and Howe were the outstanding forwards and the former fed the latter with some glorious passes and in the last minute was unlucky not to score after running through the defence from an oblique angle.

The Chinese team were badly rattled in the opening half by the machine like attacks of the Club forwards and although several opportunities were presented them, they failed to score, largely owing to the magnificent display of George Rodger, the Club's custodian who excelled himself.

Incidentally the game augurs well for the Club when they meet South China "A" on November 10 on the Club ground Saturday's encounter has possibly given the Club selectors excellent ideas as to the weaknesses in the team.

The Recreio were sadly as a loss without the services of A. V. Gosano and went under to the Police by 2 goals to 1 although they led at the interval by the only goal scored up till then. In the second half the Police livened up and a lapse by Marques, the Recreio custodian, saw the Police eventually take the lead.

The Lincoln's had the better of Kowloon in their first division game on the Railway ground. Leading at the interval by the odd goal in three, they were practically all over the Kowloonites in the second half and scored again, Kowloon replying once.

St. Joseph's were very poorly served against the East Lanes who improved as the game progressed and eventually left the field the winners by 4 goals to 1.

In the Second Division the Engineers and the Young Indians were seen in a very lively game on the Marine ground, the Engineers leaving the field the winners by the odd goal in three.

Kowloon again were defeated when the East Lanes inflicted a 5-goal victory over them, while the Navy and South China shared 6 goals in a close encounter.

The Club seconds were hopelessly at sea against the Lincoln's and although the defence put up a stubborn resistance, they were unable to cope with the fast moving Lincoln forwards. The Artillery made an unexpected recovery in form to take full points off the Athletic while the University caused a minor sensation by defeating the Borderers by 3 goals to 1 in a very fast game.

In the Third Division the Medicals had the better of the Railway Recreation Club by the odd goal in three, while the Police secured a "double" by defeating the Recreio juniors by the same margin as their seniors.

There were some nasty scenes in the encounter between the Lincoln's and the Radio and fisticuffs was indulged in at one time of the game. The extraordinary part of it was that neither of the combatants were warned or ordered off the field.

Needless to say the Lincoln's as a result of being beaten by the Radio by goals to 1 have lost the magnificent record they held last season when they won every one of their encounters.

SOUTH CHINA'S LEAGUE WIN

Yesterday's Game

South China "A" retained their position at the top of the local football League by decisively defeating the Chinese Athletic by the odd goal in three when they met in their first division encounter at Caroline Hill yesterday afternoon before an enormous crowd of spectators.

The game was disappointing, ugly incidents occurred, terminating in Li Tin Sang, South China's right back being ordered off for kicking an opponent. In addition Toy Quee Liang was warned for a similar offence.

The first half opened very brightly, South China immediately taking up the offensive and it was not long before Tso Kwai Shing swung in a perfect centre for Tam Kong Pak to notch up South China's first goal with a sparkling header.

Play was very bolsterous following this goal and surprisingly enough the Athletic team seemed to have bucked up as a result of this reverse and from then onwards South China were continually on the defence, Tam Kong Pak rendering invaluable aid by dropping back.

Just before the interval the Athletic stormed the South China goal and during a melee Ho Kar Kung charged Wong Wing, who neatly side-stepped the Athletic leader, falling for Li Tin Sang to implant a foot on his neck which resulted in him being ordered off the field by the referee.

This caused an uproar among the spectators and when the interval arrived soon after, the crowd of spectators off the main stand took up an ugly attitude which was quelled by Liang Wing Chui who pacified the crowds with a few words.

CAPT. JORDAN RIDES TWO WINNERS

FAVOURITES HAVE GOOD DAY AT MACAO

Delightful Chance Pays $45

[By "MORNING DEW"]

The Macao Race Meeting yesterday drew a slightly better attendance than usual, and the racing was quite keen.

Captain J. L. Jordan won the Polo Scurry with Stickypast and later in the afternoon scored a very popular win with Festival Eve.

The biggest dividend of the day was paid by Delightful Chance, a pony "tipped" by the "Daily Press" on Saturday as a likely winner.

Boxing Eve, with Mr. Charles up, again scored a victory, while the ladies race fell to Miss L. Fearon.

DAILY DOUBLE PAYS $34

The Daily Double paid $34 to successful punters, the tickets being $2 each. There were only 20 tickets on Delightful Chance, while of this number only six managed to back the second leg (Festival Eve). In all 120 tickets were taken on the "Double."

Polo Pony Scurry
As predicted, this sprint over half a mile proved an easy thing for Stickypast, Captain Jordan leading from start to finish. Cloudy Eve was well placed most of the way and looked like finishing second when Lt. Hope brought along Winchester Stag to snatch second place on the post. Mr. Butler on Salome was a good fourth. Stickypast won by four lengths, finishing on the bit.

Delightful Chance
The "Daily Press" selection for the second race, Delightful Chance (ridden by Mr. F. F. Li), won the second race to pay the handsome dividend of $45.10. The pony ran in the centre of the field behind Hell For Leather and Ironsides. The last named dropped rapidly out of the race in the straight and in the run home Delightful Chance won from Hell For Leather with Kindo a good third.

The Carp, a well-fancied candidate was fourth, Soldier of Italy next and Ironsides sixth.

Leads All The Way
What a Chance, in spite of top weight led all the way home in the third race, Mr. Botelho sending him well in front at the start and kept him going all the way. Racing Pluck appeared at one time as though he was going to catch him but the pony was not equal to it and was even beaten out of second place. Glad Eyes robbing him of it. Both Gold Currency and Gold Bullion moved badly and Fair View never had a look in at any stage of the race.

Boxing Eve
In a slow race over a mile and a quarter, Boxing Eve won from Partnership, with Wembley Stag third and Stickypast (starting for the second time during the afternoon), fourth by a furlong.

Stickypast led over the first quarter of a mile but thereafter he faded rapidly out of the picture. Boxing Eve took the lead seven furlongs from home, closely followed by the remaining two ponies. Charles set a slow pace and as the others did not press him, Boxing Eve led into the straight and finally won by three lengths. Wembley Stag was a length behind the second pony.

Festival Eve
The second leg of the "Daily Double" fell to Festival Eve, who ran a beautiful race to "pip" Bold Commander on the post. Mr. Ip who rode the latter had several opportunities to draw in front early in the race, but preferred to keep the pony for a dash up the straight. In doing this, he was taking a big risk and as events

In the second half with only ten men opposing them, the Athletic seemed to have lost all their snap and time and again glorious opportunities were missed. Eventually a glorious run down the right wing by Tso Kwai Shing and a smart centre saw Ip Pak Wa put South China two goals up with a neat drive.

The last minutes of the game were very tense and with the exception of an accidental goal for such it seemed, Au Kim Fung scored the Athletic's only goal. Earlier on and just before the goal the same player lobbed the ball over the South China goal from the penalty spot awarded against Lau Mau for pushing.

proved, he was just beaten on the post by a faster pony. Colombo was third.

Ladies Race
As anticipated, the second pony in the opening race, Winchester Stag, won the last race easily. Miss Scott-Harston finished second on Darien, while Mrs. Williams on That's That rode well to secure third place. The last-named went at a terrific pace over the first quarter mile, but thereafter the pony tired rapidly and only just managed a place.

YESTERDAY'S MATCHES

St. Andrew's Beat Keppel

A fast and exciting hockey game in the Mamak tournament was played at the Police Training School yesterday between the St. Andrew's and H.M.S. Keppel. The game resulted in a win for the former by five goals to three.

The sailors had the better of the game throughout the first half, leading by three goals to one, their scorers being Lt. Sinclair-Ford, Smith and Muir. The Saints could manage to score only once at this period, through Carroll.

After the interval, the Saints retaliated strongly, scoring four goals without any reply. E. F. Fincher did the "hat trick" while Carroll added the other.

Signals v. Kowloon Indians

In a scrappy game played on the Marina ground, the Kowloon Indians surprisingly defeated the R.C. of Signals by four goals to one. Prior to this match, the Signals were the leaders of the Mamak tournament; but as a result of their defeat yesterday they are now deposed by the St. Andrew's in the leadership.

In the first half, the Indians were superior both in attack and defence, and scored four goals while the soldiers managed to reply only once.

The soldiers, however, improved considerably in the second half, making quite a number of dangerous raids which resulted in two goals. Toward the end of the game, they tied hard for the equaliser, but the Indians managed to hold out.

FRED PERRY'S FUTURE

Will Not Turn Professional

London, Oct. 27.

That there is not the slightest chance of Fred Perry, Britain's lawn tennis champion and mainstay of the triumphant Davis Cup team, turning professional at present, was the statement made by Mr. Leighton Crawford, manager of the British tennis team, on his return from America yesterday.

"What may happen in two or three years' time I cannot say, but Perry has an eye on the Davis Cup for next year," said Mr. Crawford.

LADIES HOCKEY

Saints Beat Recreio

A very fast hockey encounter was seen on the Marina ground on Saturday afternoon when the St. Andrew's Ladies took full points off the Recreio Ladies by 3 goals to 1 in their Caer Clark Cup fixture.

Erratic shooting among both sets of forward lines was responsible for many glorious opportunities going begging, while poor passing also accounted for many chances being spoiled.

Miss M. Woolley was again to the fore with two splendid goals for the Saints in the first half, while Miss C. Botelho scored once for the Recreio Ladies.

In the second half Miss P. Gittins placed the Saints further ahead with a well placed shot beyond Miss G. Roza's reach.

Miss E. Xavier at centre half for the Recreio was the outstanding player on display, while Miss M. Basto was seen to advantage at full-back.

The strength of the Saint's team lay in the halves, Miss J. Wong being brilliantly supported by Miss I. Woolley and Mrs. Berrux.

The teams were:—
St. Andrew's Ladies:—Mrs. R. Ross, Misses G. White, E. Landolt, I. Woolley, J. Wong, Mrs. Berrux, Misses P. Wong, G. Kroutaya, P. Gittins and M. Churn.

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Report

Mr. G. A. Harriman's weekly share report and market review issued at noon on Saturday states:—
 The market was again rather active during the week under review, but rates in many instances were marked lower due to no support, even the better class securities, such as Hong Kong Trams and Hong Kong Electric, appeared to be out of favour, the latter again registering a new record of 309. Hong Kong Trams eased off with sales effected at 119.75. Hong Kong Electric failed to maintain their strength and were on offer at 351.00. Wharves and Telephone (old) however were very steady with enquiries at 1107 and 223 respectively. Dairy Farms and Star Ferries were neglected, the former being freely offered at 223.50, the latter remaining nominal at 397. Minor issues were generally easier with Hotels done down to 4.90. Lights (old) changed hands in large quantities towards the end of the week at 88.00 mainly for Settlement account. Cements were on offer at 2.10. Providents (old) remained in demand at 1.50. Ewos again suffered at 8.10.40 for near deliveries at the close. Sterling counters were almost unchanged with Hong Kong Banks done at 159.75 and Unions at around 500. The tone of the market at the close is quietly easy.

The reports and prices are published as supplied by Importers:
 Cotton Piece-Goods and Fancy Cotton Goods.

The following reports have been received:—
 The small business in progress for certain Spring Fancies was completely upset by the break in exchange and transactions are difficult to arrange on account of the fluctuations in exchange. The local market for Greys and Whites remains very quiet, and sales of "spot" cargo have fallen off.
 The latest Cotton prices to hand are those of the 25th inst.:—

 Clearances of this season's Woolen cargo are proceeding fairly satisfactorily but prices do not show any improvement. Some small sales are reported in "Spot" cargo, including Hosiery Yarns and Rugs. Japanese Woolens are more prominent, particularly in Wool Venetians and Serges.

GERMAN SHARE MARKET

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]
 Berlin, Oct. 27.
 The turnover in the sharemarket was even smaller than during the last few days. Lignite were offered plentifully, presumably as a result of the announcement on Friday of the formation of a new concern for exploiting the processes for the conversion of lignite into motor fuel.
 Fixed interest securities were mostly unchanged, the price offer and demand being well balanced.
 Call Money 3 1/2 to 4. Young Loan jumped 1/4 to 144. Dytrusts unchanged at 142. Salzdetruth Potash improved 1/4 to 155 1/2. German Steel Trusts unchanged at 41. German Mineral Oils weakened 1/4 to 104 1/2. Siemenshalke rose 1/4 to 141. Bernberg Rayon declined 1/4 to 133 1/2. Elntacht Lignite slumped 1/4 to 166.
 The sharemarket opened bright on Monday, promising a satisfactory week but when on Thursday an announcement was made for new taxation for all future transactions in shares, an exodus into the fixed interest securities set in. The sharemarket had another check on Saturday through the announcement of the formation of a company of a trust-like character with 100 million marks capital with the object of exploiting the technical processes for the conversion of Lignite into motor fuel. Lignite shares slumped heavily as a result.
 The influence that worked unfavourably on the sharemarket had proved stimulating for the fixed interest securities, the bond market, being especially buoyant at the close.

RECOVERY IN AMERICA

Bankers Pledge Support

Washington, Oct. 27.
 Four officers of the American Bankers' Association, headed by the new President of the body, Mr. Rudolph S. Hecht, called on President Roosevelt to inform him that their Association was prepared to co-operate fully with the recovery campaign.
 They said that bankers were anxious to lend to industry, adding, "We are four ball players for the All-American team composed of banking, industry, labour, agriculture, and capital."
 Mr. Hecht was expected to hold discussions yesterday on a plan to remove the foreign exchange risk from exporters by clearing all exports through the stabilization fund. By this scheme, the fund would buy foreign exchange from the exporter, subject to collection abroad, and would assume the risk of getting the funds out of foreign countries.
 The plan has been studied by a special committee of Federal Reserve Bank Governors.

U. S. SILVER POLICY

Harms Chinese-Trade

London, Oct. 27.
 Sir Arthur Michael Samuel, M.P. in a speech at Parliament declared that he hoped that those who had preached on raising the world price of silver to increase the purchasing power of the East and to revive world trade had now learned their lesson.
 President Roosevelt, he said, in order to secure the votes of the silver States, had artificially raised the silver price and dislocated Chinese trade.
 As a result of breaking the laws of supply and demand, President Roosevelt had injured American trade with China and probably Anglo-Chinese trade, which, in turn, would injure a world trade revival in the East.
